THE HISPANIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA was founded in 1904.

The deed of foundation provides for the establishment in the city of New York of a public library and museum designed to be a link between the English-, Spanish-, and Portuguese-speaking peoples. It provides also for the advancement of the study of the Spanish and Portuguese languages, literature, and history, for the study of the countries wherein Spanish and Portuguese are or have been spoken languages, and for the publication from time to time of works to further these ends.

The purpose of the Society was, not merely to form a library, but to give to students and others access to original documents and examples of Hispanic arts and to create a centre for the dissemination of knowledge regarding Spain, Portugal, and Latin America.

In furtherance of these aims a collection of paintings, manuscripts, maps, and coins, and
